Hello and Happy Spring!

Here we are in the year 2020 and I hope your year is going well.

As usual, in my thoughts to convey from the President of your Club, above all else, membership continues to be of importance. Unless we retain our current members and add new ones who will remain as members for a long time, that issue is the one that is most pressing for all of us to consider. Think what your Club has to offer: a beautiful location, delicious food, events that are entertaining and some that actually make you think, as well as from time to time an opportunity to day trip to some interesting place.

We have a number of events coming up this spring, something for everyone. Drop by our Members Social with a group or solo, join the Book Circle, dine with us for Easter or come to one of our Lunch and Lectures! We’ve also added a Trivia Night in the Tap Room once a month!

Please support your Club in every way: by coming to the Club, recommending it to your friends and relatives and by making financial contributions to the Marburg Fund as it is important to the Club.

Best,

Barbara Kerr Howe,
President, Board of Governors, Johns Hopkins Club

Meet the Member—Robert Scholz

The Johns Hopkins Club has been a fixture in Robert Scholz’s life, from early childhood to today. Born and raised in Baltimore, Mr. Scholz remembers fondly his parents, both members here, bringing him and his brothers and sisters to the Club for dinners and events. The children loved to run to the third floor of the Club and look out of the hallway window that overlooks the Main Dining Room, waving down to their parents and friends.

Mr. Scholz attended Johns Hopkins University and graduated with a degree in Social and Behavioral Science in 1973. He enjoyed the traditional campus environment of Hopkins, different than most other universities of the 1970’s. While on campus Mr. Scholz served on the Honor Commission as well as played intramural lacrosse.

After graduating with a law degree from the University of Maryland, Mr. Scholz took an associate position at the law firm Niles, Barton & Wilmer LLP where he practiced for 38 years, serving as the Managing Partner for 15 of those years. He recently retired from service as Chief Legal Counsel to State of Maryland Governor Larry Hogan, a position he was appointed to in 2014.

Mr. Scholz has served the state and community as Chair of the Maryland State Ethics Commission and Chair of the Baltimore County Ethics Commission, as well as on GBC’s Public Safety Committee. He has also served on the Board of Directors of the Calvert Institute for Policy and Research and of the B&O Railroad Roundhouse Museum.

In 2002 Mr. Scholz joined the Board of Governors here at the Johns Hopkins Club. He served on the Board from 2002 until 2009, and was President of the Board from 2006 to 2008. As President Mr. Scholz worked to engage the Club members in a variety of social and board activities, instituting our very popular Book Club. In his free time, Mr. Scholz is an avid reader of fiction and nonfiction and takes courses in the University’s Odyssey program. Someday soon he’s going to get around to writing a novel.

Mr. Scholz and his wife Rebecca love visiting the Club, and have brought their family here to many wonderful gatherings over the years. He’s seen his son and daughter waving down at him from the third floor window, just like he used to do as a child. His son Ben even worked as a busser in the Main Dining Room. Mr. Scholz’s brother and sister are also current members of the Club. The Club is proud to have been a part of so many of Mr. Scholz’s lifetime of memories, and we are very thankful for his service and dedication to our grand tradition.

MCKIM CENTER

Since 1999 the Club has been collecting Christmas presents and donating them to the McKim Community Center in Baltimore City. Again this past Christmas, thanks to the generous donations from our members, we were able to deliver lots of gifts to the center for their annual Christmas party. We received a letter of thanks from Dwight Warren, the Center’s Executive Director who was most appreciative of the Club’s continued support. Thanks everyone!

FEATURED RECIPROCAL CLUB

The Athenaeum at Caltech

The Athenaeum at Caltech opened its doors in November of 1930, followed by a formal dinner and opening gala in February celebrating one of Caltech’s most important guests, Albert Einstein. The stately Mediterranean-style building and grounds host a variety of settings for dining, meetings, or parties. Enjoy fine dining in the Hall of Associates, drinks in the Hayman Lounge or casual dining in the Rathskeller Bar and Game Room. The Club also houses several guest rooms and suites for members and sponsored guests. HAPPY HOLIDAYS HOPKINS CLUB STAFF

After a busy season, the staff enjoyed holiday bonuses and a festive holiday bash thanks to the generous contributions of our members to the Employee Holiday Fund. Dressed to the nines, everyone celebrated with Hors d’oeuvre, a Buffet Dinner, and a DJ who kept us all dancing. The evening’s highlight was the announcement of the 2019 Employee of the year when General Manager Cem Baraz presented the award to Antoine Smith. Antoine received a $750.00 cash prize and a plaque as well as hugs and cheers from his co-workers!

OH SO YOUNG!

It’s that time, after the long cold winter, when I can’t help but think of one of my favorite Sinatra tunes. Francis Albert could spin a lyric and I love You Make Me Feel So Young. “You make me feel so young, you make me feel so spring has sprung and every time I see you grin, I’m such a happy individual.”

With spring comes renewed energy, a renewed sense of self. The trees are budding and popping with blossoms. The Daffodils are sprouting about in sunshine yellow and of course it’s time to go and tend to our herb garden. With warmer days, the scent of rain and lilac and a new crop begins.

Crops of new potatoes, turnips, beets, asparagus, leeks, carrots, cabbage, rhubarb, squash blossoms, sugar peas, strawberries and spring greens delight.

A simple pleasure at the Club is tending to our herb garden. Look for pictures in upcoming editions of the Club Herald. We use our herbs for decorating, garnishing, flavoring butters and oils and for accent flavors in cooking and drinks. There is also the peaceful, calming effect it has in our back courtyard.

When spring has sprung, feel fresh, renewed and happy. We all need more happiness. Thanks for reading.

LUNCH & LECTURE
WATERFRONT MANHATTAN: From Henry Hudson to the High Line A book talk by Kurt C. Schlichting
Co-hosted by Johns Hopkins University Press
Wednesday, March 25, 2020  12:30 pm
Much like in Baltimore, the waterfront was the key to New York City’s growth and prosperity. Historian Kurt Schlichting (author of popular JHU Press books on Grand Central Station) returns to the Club to tell the story of Manhattan’s waterfront as an epic struggle between public and private control. Through the mid-19th century, private interests monopolized waterfront access (sparking battles among shipping companies, railroads, and ferry lines). Public control returned when struggling maritime industries abandoned the waterfront under pressure from air travel and container shipping. Today, Manhattan is almost completely surrounded by waterfront parkland, luxury housing, and tourist attractions. Join us for a wide-ranging discussion that will dazzle anyone who is fascinated by this transformation of New York (and the fate of Baltimore’s own waterfront). Reservations required. Cost: $24.00 plus surcharge and sales tax. We will begin promptly at 12:30 pm with Lunch including Beverage and Dessert, followed by the Lecture.

WHAT MADE HIM BRAHMS: Lunch, Lecture, and Piano Recital

Saturday, April 18, 2020

12:00 pm

Music historian Jan Swafford writes, in his biography of Johannes Brahms, that the Romantic composer’s work displays the counterpoint of Bach, the architecture of Beethoven, and the gentle lyricism of Schubert. The first half of this program explores these three powerful antecedents. The second half showcases Brahms in his autumnal years, as he unites the threads of his most compelling influences in a richly textured fabric of music that is expressive, progressive, and visionary. Join pianist and Steinway artist Lura Johnson for this exploration of Brahms’ Klavierstucke, Op. 118.

Pianist, Lura Johnson is a Steinway Artist and the Second Prize winner of the 2015 International Johannes Brahms Competition Chamber Music Division. Equally comfortable as soloist, chamber musician, and orchestral musician, she is Principal Pianist of the Delaware Symphony and Guest Pianist for the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra since 2007.

Reservations required. Cost: $57.00. Lunch at noon, program from 1:00 – 2:30 pm.

LUNCH & LECTURE

FACES OF CIVIL WAR NURSES

A book talk by Ronald S. Coddington

Co-hosted by Johns Hopkins University Press

Thursday, April 23, 2020

12:30 pm

With rare archival images and biographical sketches, Ron Coddington has recreated the lives of Civil War soldiers and sailors in several acclaimed books from JHU Press. In Faces of Civil War Nurses, he turns his attention to the experiences of 77 dauntless women who served as nurses and caregivers during the Civil War. Their personal narratives are as unique as fingerprints: each provides a distinct entry point into the larger social history of this brutal and bloody conflict and its aftermath. Many of these women took on path-breaking roles in health care, charitable societies, and the suffrage movement. Ron returns to the Club for an engaging talk that will appeal to anyone with an interest in the Civil War, women’s history, nursing, or photography.

Reservations required. Cost: $24.00 plus surcharge and sales tax. We will begin promptly at 12:30 pm with Lunch including Beverage and Dessert, followed by the Lecture.
