Let me start by sharing the wonderful news that the San Martin Drive renovation is complete and you may now access the Club from University Parkway via San Martin Drive! The renovations look fantastic and make the last part of your journey to the Club a beautiful experience! The days finally are getting longer and the promise of spring and lacrosse is in the air. It is time to end your hibernation and come to the Club! There are some terrific events coming up as you can see in our Calendar of Events on pages 4 and 5.

In March we have lunch and lectures, Birthday Night, Jazz at the Johns Hopkins Club, St. Patrick’s Day Party and more. Home lacrosse games continue in April when we also have Breakfast with the Easter Bunny, Easter Sunday, Lecture Night and Oyster Roast just to name a few.

Of course we encourage you to consider the Club for your own special event. Whether it is a small cocktail party in the Nobel Room, a business dinner in the Eisenhower Room or a private brunch in the ABC Rooms, the Club is a fantastic venue to host your special occasion.

We hope you will continue to support your Club as we enjoy our 80th year at our current location. We look forward to seeing you at one of our special events soon.

Latin jazz pianist Chano Dominguez makes post-bop, fusion and flamenco influenced music that often references his Andalusian roots. He quickly garnered several awards for his innovative mix of flamenco and jazz, including winning first prize in the National Jazz Competition for Young Interpreters in 1992. Since then he has released a steady stream of forward thinking, cross cultural albums.

Meet the Member — Bob Babb

The great Bob Babb is approaching his 38th season as head baseball coach of the Johns Hopkins Baseball program. Bob grew up in a baseball-loving town, in a baseball-loving family. Leaving the small town of Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania to attend college at Johns Hopkins, Bob found himself in the culture shock of a big city. Opening his eyes to new people, new cultures, and new ways of life, he entered Hopkins as part of the Class of ’77 with a major in History. Originally recruited by the basketball coach to play, Bob played for one year and dove into two other sports as well. He began to play baseball for the Blue Jays amidst keeping a full schedule assisting the basketball and football coaches. He would go on to graduate and teach high school Social Studies, still keeping his Blue Jay ties by assisting coach Denny Cox for Hopkins football and baseball after his school duties ended. During this time, Babb became the full time Head Baseball Coach for Hopkins (in 1980) where he has remained and continued assisting with football until 2000.

Coach Babb began coming to the Club for after game events and tailgate parties through the Athletic Department. He started attending the Club so frequently, he decided to get his own membership. He enjoys going to the Tap Room, as it is less formal, so he is able to bring his student athletes in after sporting events in their game apparel. He and his athletes are also big fans of the Friday night buffets in the Tap Room. The convenience of the Club allows for spur of the moment trips, and the quality of the food and kindness of the staff are unmatched. He loves the versatility of the Club, as it serves as a means to meet his personal and professional needs. He is able to schedule events with alumni and parents or wind down after a busy week and relax with family and friends.

Babb has earned various milestones over his fruitful career. With 1069 victories (more than any other Hopkins coach in any sport), thirty conference championships, and 20 NCAA Tournament appearances, Bob Babb ranks as one of the winningest coaches in NCAA Division III history. Seven of his players have gone on to play professionally, and his athletes have an impressive 97% graduation rate. He was also one of four individuals who was inducted to the ABCA (American Baseball Coaches Association) Hall of Fame in January 2016. Coach Babb has created a legacy that will have a lasting influence on the University for years and years to come. He claims his proudest achievement is not any trophy or award, but the accomplishment he has felt through recruiting and mentoring so many outstanding men, and the lifelong bonds he has created throughout the years. Being a history buff, Bob enjoys reading historical novels. The last book he read was Lincoln’s Foreign Policy by Jay Monaghan, and he is currently reading some historical fiction work by Stephen Berry. In his free time, he enjoys traveling, going out for dinner with friends, and, of course, reading!
A Moment with Chef Patrick

With winter and spring grappling in their wrestling match, I hope the gentler season prevails with its official arrival on March 20. We all know that Baltimore springs can be wet and chilly and comes roaring in as a lion rather than sheepishly lamb-like. Springtime in Maryland ushers in asparagus, strawberries, morels, beets, rhubarb, peas and with the ever popular farmer’s markets, fresh baby chickens, lamb, brown and black calves. Slowly blue crabs start to waken and soft shell crabs are swimming about. Truly a world delicacy! Rockfish and oysters are still available as well as the start of spring apples. After months of cold gray skies, colors start to pop, everything seems vivid and bright and hope springs eternal. You realize Alice was right.

Here is a terrific spring luncheon or brunch dish

ASPARAGUS CRAB QUICHE

- ¾ lb. lightly cooked (3 minutes) 2” pieces of asparagus
- 1 9” unbaked pie crust
- ½ lb. picked jumbo lump crab meat
- 1 cup shredded white cheddar cheese
- 1 tbsp flour
- 3 eggs lightly beaten
- 1½ cup half and half
- salt to taste
- Tabasco to taste
- 2 tbsp reggiano cheese finely grated

In the pie crust, place the asparagus, crab and cheese over the bottom of the pie. Take the rest of the ingredients and mix well, strain over and into the pie. Bake at 350 for 30 – 40 minutes. Let stand 10 minutes before cutting.

We received a letter of thanks from Dwight Warren, the Center’s Executive Director who was most appreciative of the Club’s continued support. Thanks everyone!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS HOPKINS CLUB STAFF
Staff members enjoyed holiday bonuses and a festive holiday bash after a busy season, thanks to the generous contributions of our members to the Employee Holiday Fund. Dressed to the nines, everyone celebrated with Hors d’oeuvre, a Buffet Dinner and a DJ who kept the place rockin’.

The evening’s highlight was the announcement of the 2016 Employee of the Year when General Manager Cem Baraz presented the award to Antoine Smith. Antoine received a $750 cash prize and a plaque as well as hugs and applause from his co-workers. Congratulations Antoine!
