Greetings!

Now that Fall has arrived with Winter close at hand, I wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving and a Happy Holiday Season.

Please think of your Club when you are making plans with family and friends to celebrate these holidays. The Club provides a wonderful atmosphere for having a great time with delicious food and conversation with those in your family and your close friends. Private rooms are available and the Main Dining Room lends itself to a festive and relaxing venue for your enjoyment.

Events are scheduled as well. The Book Circle will take place on November 21, 2019 and the book selected is A Woman of No Importance by Sonia Purnell. Virginia Hall, the main character in the book, has strong Baltimore connections and actually attended the Roland Park Country School. If you are not familiar with her role in World War II, now is the time to read about her and her role as a spy. Reservations are required so please call the Club and join in a lively discussion that goes along with this event. In September, 38 people attended and dinner was as delicious as always and the conversation was spirited!

Tuesdays are Prime Rib Buffet night in the Main Dining Room and on Wednesday the ever popular Fried Chicken Country Buffet is served in the Tap Room. On Sunday, please join us for all you can enjoy of the Sunday Brunch. 36 feet from which to choose.

As we approach another New Year, please join us for a fun evening of food and beverages as we toast what we hope will be a Happy and Healthy New Year for all. This is your Club; we need you for you to use it and get the maximum benefit and all that you expect it to provide! The Club is only as strong as its members, so I hope to see you soon.

Best,
Barbara Kerr Howe,
President, Board of Governors, Johns Hopkins Club

MEET THE MEMBER—Dr. Miriam Cohen

In this issue of the Club Herald, we introduce an especially impressive member, Dr. Miriam Cohen. She has been a member of the Club since 1966 when she and her late husband, who worked at the University’s Health Center, were introduced to the Club as guests of Dr. Ed Jarrett. She is a frequent diner at the Club and enjoys the Lounge, Tap Room and Main Dining Room where she states “there is nothing else like it, the food and personnel, it is always a lovely experience.” She often runs into people she knows at the Club and has hosted numerous private parties here such as her parents’ 50th wedding anniversary and countless birthdays among others.

Dr. Cohen was a serious student at Western High School when she made the decision to go into medicine. Being born and raised in Baltimore, Dr. Cohen graduated from the Peabody Institute where she studied piano, then the University of Maryland School of Medicine where she was the youngest in her graduating class. She then went on to do her residency at MedStar Union Memorial Hospital where she has practiced Cardiology since 1969. At the time, this field was highly dominated by men. As the first trained female cardiologist in the state she was determined to leave her footprint. “Dr. Cohen is an extraordinary clinician and physician, and person,” said Stuart Bell, MD, vice president of Medical Affairs at MedStar Union Memorial. “There is no one more respected by their colleagues or more beloved by her patients, many of whom consider her a friend.”

Dr. Cohen has two grown children, a son and a daughter. She owns a home in Florida where she tries to visit as often as time allows. She loves a good murder mystery when she is not dealing with matters of the heart.

Isn’t it Tap Room time?
HEARTY SQUASH

Hearty squash time is upon us. From late summer through autumn, “winter squash” are harvested. Then they are cured or hardened in open air to toughen their exterior. This process insures the squash will keep for months without refrigeration.

When you select winter squash, the stem is the best indication of ripeness. They should be tan, dry and may look fibrous and frayed.

Recently while shopping for apples to make applesauce at a farmer’s market in Baltimore County, Linda and I decided to pick up a few squash for a hearty autumn bisque. They had hundreds of pounds of various varieties such as Acorn, Blue Hubbard, Butternut, Delicata, Heart of Gold, Pie Pumpkin, Red Kuri, Sweet Dumplin’ and Spaghetti. Take a little time and patience with these squash and they will provide a considerable amount of nourishing and tasty food!

SIMPLE ROASTED BUTTERNUT SQUASH

1 Butternut squash, peeled, seeded and cut into 1” cubes
2 garlic cloves, minced
2 tbsp Extra Virgin Olive Oil
Salt and ground black pepper to taste

Preheat oven to 400. Toss the squash with the EVOO and garlic in a large bowl. Season with salt and pepper. Arrange on a sheet pan and roast until tender and lightly browned, 25–30 minutes.

Peace,

Patrick

A book talk by John Clark Mayden Co-hosted by JHU Press
Wednesday, December 11, 2019 12:30 pm
Baltimore native John Clark Mayden’s photographs are distinctive to our city and specific to black life here, lingering on the front stoops and in the postage-stamp backyards of Charm City row houses. But his pictures are far from nostalgic. Informed by the photographer’s deep commitment to both social justice and storytelling, they strip Baltimore of pretense and illusion and show the city’s veins.
John joins us to discuss his stunning new book from JHU Press and the new exhibit of his work curated by JHU’s Gabrielle Dean now at the George Peabody Library. Reservations required.
